

Thank you for submitting an abstract for our 2015 conference. Please be aware that all the information provided in this abstract form will be used to promote your presentation. Please be diligent in describing your work. Your contact information is very important to have available in finalizing the schedule. Personal phone numbers will not be shared.

Take a moment and review the organizations providing continuing education credits (CEUs) and provide us with any other organizations we can contact about additional CEUs.
